TERMINATION SECRECY AGREEMENT

I, _____, am about to terminate my association with the Central Intelligence Agency. I realize that, by virtue of my duties with that Agency, I have been the recipient of information and intelligence, both classified and otherwise, which concerns the present and future security of the United States of America. I am aware that the unauthorized disclosure of such information is prohibited by the Espionage Act of 1917, and by the National Security Act of 1947 which specifically requires the protection of intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure. Accordingly, I SOLEMNLY SWEAR, WITHOUT MENTAL RESERVATION OR PURPOSE OF EVASION, AND IN THE ABSENCE OF DURESS, AS FOLLOWS:

1. I will never voluntarily divulge, publish nor reveal by writing, word, conduct or otherwise, such classified information, intelligence methods and operations, including any information relating to CIA clandestine operations, sources, methods, personnel, fiscal figures, operations, or security measures, to anyone whatsoever, including, but not limited to, any future governmental or private employer, private citizen, or other government employee or official without the express written consent of the Director of Central Intelligence or his authorized representative.

2. I have been invited to submit in writing any monetary claims which I may have against CIA or the United States Government which may in any way necessitate the disclosure of information described herein. I have been advised that any such claims will receive full legal consideration. In the event, however, that I am not satisfied with the decisions of CIA concerning any present or future claims I may submit, I will not take any other action to obtain satisfaction without prior written notice to CIA, and then only in accordance with such legal and security advice as CIA will promptly furnish me, which will neither impair the prosecution of my claim nor endanger the security of information I am pledged hereby not to disclose.

3. I do not have any documents or materials in my possession, classified or otherwise, which are the property of, or in custodial responsibility of the Central Intelligence Agency, having come into my possession as a result of my duties with the Central Intelligence Agency, or otherwise.

4. During my exit processing and during my period of employment with the CIA I have been given an opportunity to report all information about the Agency, its personnel and its operations which I consider should receive official cognizance. Hence, I do not possess any information, which I have not officially reported, which might be considered to be critical of the Agency or its personnel, or which it is my duty to disclose to the Central Intelligence Agency, nor am I aware of any violations or breaches of security not heretofore reported, except as is set forth on the reverse side of this sheet, or on other attachments.

5. I have been advised that in the event I am called upon by properly constituted authorities to testify or provide information which I am pledged hereby not to disclose, I will notify CIA immediately; I will also advise said authorities of my secrecy commitments to the United States Government and will request that my right or need to testify be established before I am required to do so.

6. I am aware of the provisions and penalties of the Espionage Act of 1917, as amended, and am fully aware that any violation on my part of certain matters sworn to by me under this oath may subject me to prosecution under the terms of that Act, and that violation of other portions of this oath are subject to appropriate action, including such dissemination of the violation as the circumstances warrant.

I have read and understand the contents of this oath and voluntarily affix my signature thereto with the full knowledge that this oath was executed for the mutual benefit of myself and the United States Government, and that it will be retained in the files of the Central Intelligence Agency for its future use or for reference by me at any time in the future that I may be requested or ordered to testify or disclose any of the matters included within the scope of this oath.
